North Stonington Bridge Jumper Penalized for Intoxication-Sober Man Set to Care for Him Killed-Greene's Body Sent to East Greenwich-Town Council to Meet for Organization-Fire Committee Plans Conference Friday Evening.

William Price of North Stonington, who, with Charles Greene of Mystic and West Kingston, jumped from the Norwich-Westerly street railway troitely bridge into Pierce street, a distance of 25 feet, Tuesday night, was able to return to his home Wednesday morning. After being attended by Dr. M. H. Scanion he spent Tuesday night at the police station, and Wednesday nathing was arraigned offere Judge Whomms in the Third district court, charged with intoxication, if on the 12 ment of costs, judgment was suspended for two weeks. William A Wilcox, who said a farm to Price was suspended for two weeks. William A Wilcox, who seld a farm to Price about three ments ago, paid the costs, $4.50, and Greene was released. As told in Wednesday's Bulletin, Greene was instantly killed. Greene who was sober, was engaged to care for Price, who was drunk, and to see that he arrived at his North Stonington home and thus avoid threatened arrest. Price does not recollect seeing Greene and supposed that his companion was Daniel Sisson, who had been with him through the day. He re-alls seeing the arrivaching trolley car and unmaing from the tridge with the other man, when he supposed was Sisson, but Sisson had been arrested in High street. Frice complained of severe but Sason had teen errested in this a street. Frice complained of severe rains in the stomach and back and in the right knew Wednesday morning, but Dr. Scanlon did not consider the injuries to be of a serious nature.

The body of Charles Greene was forwarded to East Greenwich Wednesday afternoon and will be buried at Co-

The members-cloct of the Westerly town council will meet seen for organization. It is understood that William I. Clarke, who has held the office for five consecutive terms, will be reclected president. The chief offices within the gift of the council will probably be filled at the first meeting, as is the custom. The present holders of these offices are: Edward M. Burke, judge of probate: Harry B. Agard town solicitor: Herbort P. Clark, town sergeant: Cornelius Bransfield, chief of police: Thomas E. Brown, sergeant of police: Edward West, Frederick T. Mitcheil and Albert C. Lamphere, policemen; Lewis Stanton, health officer. So far as known, these officers will all be re-elected, and perhaps without opposition, although it is understood that several lawyers have aspirations to serve as town selicitor. Besides these there will be appointment of constable, police constables and many minor officers.

Discourtesy Shown Sherman. Representative Sherman of West Hartford was the first speaker heard at any length in favor of the bill. "This is an important question." he said, "and should be treated seriously—not frivo-lously. This matter of woman's suflously. This matter of woman's suf-frage is like Banquo's ghost—it will continue to intrude itself: it will not down." Mr. Sherman was reading a list of countries in which women have been granted suffrage rights when Speaker Scott was obliged to call sharply for order to cause members to cease banging the lids of their desks in an attempt to cut Mr. Sherman short.

Only Minerity Want Suffrage. Representative Chandler of Bock, Hill followed Mr. Sherman. "This is question that cannot be laughed down, said Mr. Chandler, "and it must be given serious consideration. I presume we thought that this bill was one of our old biennial friends when it first came in here, but, much to the surprise of the whole state, the senate passed the measure and we now find the house confronted with the disposal of it. Now if the women are to stand beside us in public administration they must be bound by the same considerations as are binding upon us. 19 Out of 20 Don't Want It. "Of the women of Connecticut, 19 out of 20 do not ask and do not want this privilege—are opposed to it, in fact know of but one woman in the fown of Rocky Hill that wants the right to vote and, incidentally it may be added that this one is the only woman in town who is a socialist. Asking us to pass this bill is asking us to violate the fundamental principles of majority rule. This is a question to be considered en masse, not for the individual or for groups. Utder such a bill there might not be for from three to five years any disturbance of the stating quo in this state, but sooner or later a not mention here will register as voters and when that time comes every good woman in this city of Hartford will be obliged to register to protect its fai not wish to vote an obligation which they do not ask. When a mujority of women do wish to vote I will support a measure siving them the right."
